

California Utilities Diversity Council

October 12, 2007 - Governor Schwarzenegger's Conference Room -- Sacramento, CA

Keeping the CPUC En Banc focus on education and issues affecting the workforce “Pipeline”, the California Utilities Diversity Council (CUDC) met in the Governor’s Conference Room in October and were introduced to the Governor’s key advisors in education and external affairs.

LEFT : Frank Quevedo and Nancy Zarenda, co-vice chairs of the CUDC flank Secretary of Education David Long and Margaret Fortune, Senior Advisor to the Governor on Education and Jose L. Perez, Chair of the CUDC.

CENTER LEFT: Bismarck Obando, Interim Director of External Affairs, addresses the group over their working lunch.

CENTER RIGHT: Beyond the left window the Governor’s famous “smoking tent” can be seen by several offices around the “horseshoe”.

LEFT: From left to R ... Steve Leder (Pacific Gas & Electric Company); Johnnie Giles (Comcast); Secretary of Education David Long; Joan Kerr (AT&T); Rob Howard, Utility Workers Union of America; Charles Twamugabo (PG&E); and Dan Quiqley (Pacific Gas & Electric Company).